Estates Update:

Exterior Paintwork Underway

Work has commenced on the exterior paintwork of our estates. Queen Victoria Hall has been completed, work has begun at the Courthouse, with Fletton House due to be painted later this summer. These initiatives aim to refresh the appearance of the buildings, ensuring they remain aesthetically pleasing and well-maintained for years to come.

Residents and visitors are advised to be mindful of the work areas and follow any temporary signage or instructions from the painting team to ensure their safety.

We appreciate your patience and cooperation as we work to improve the visual appeal and integrity of our estates.

Cemetery Wall Repairs in Progress

We are pleased to announce that the much needed repairs to the Stoke Doyle Road cemetery wall have commenced. This project aims to restore and reinforce the wall, ensuring the safety and preservation of this historic site. During the repair period, sections of the cemetery may be temporarily inaccessible to the public. We kindly ask for your understanding and cooperation as we undertake these important improvements.

Thank you for your patience and support in preserving our local heritage.

DID YOU KNOW?

Two notable castles are situated near Oundle. Fotheringhay Castle, the site of Mary Queen of Scots' execution, was later demolished to prevent it from becoming a memorial. Barnwell Castle, which dates back to 1266 during the reign of King Henry III, still stands today. The Duke of Gloucester acquired Barnwell Castle in 1938, but it has recently been sold to private buyers. These castles are significant elements of this area's rich history.
